The Feast Day of St. Francis of Assisi is celebrated on October 4th. Beloved Patron Saint of animals and the environment, known for his profound connection to nature and his message of love, compassion, and care for all creation. The Blessing of Animals will take place in the garden opposite the Front Door of the Parish Church in Kimmage Manor on Saturday, 4th October @ 2pm

On Sunday, 5th October (as already publicised in this Newsletter) St. Mary's Indian Orthodox Church will begin to use our church on Sundays for their worship. Please note that the Ethiopian Orthodox Church already use our parish church on Saturday's twice a month. Such realities remind us of our own promotion of Christian Unity in our parish. This use of the church also allows Kimmage Manor Parish to pay its bills.

Season of Creation workshops:

The Kimmage Manor Environmental group are pleased to confirm that we will be hosting a workshop on Climate Change on the night of Tuesday, September 30th at 7pm in the Parish Hall in Kimmage.

The workshop is titled 'An Introduction to Climate Change and what local communities can do to address it' and will be led/facilitated by Niamh Brennan of Global Action Plan (GAP). This is an Irish NGO that is focused on helping us all understand what we can do as individuals to work for Climate Justice, and to do what we can to 'help the planet' as outlined in Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si. You can find out more about what Global Action Plan do at globalactionplan.ie

The night will be an interactive discussion and workshop with participation actively encouraged. The intention is to have a second such workshop in late October (Tuesday 28th) to follow up on the themes discussed. There will be a cup of tea afterwards on both nights to enable the discussion to continue. We look forward to hosting these workshops and would be delighted to see a good attendance.

There will be a meeting of the Partnership Parishes Council (Terenure, Kimmage Manor, Greenhills, Templeogue, & Willington) on Tuesday, 30th September. The agenda includes: The New Safeguarding Process; Proposal of Catechetical Programme; a Name for the Partnership Group; & Talking about the Possibility of Having an Administrator for the Partnership.

Dance Yourself Fit takes place in Kimmage Manor Parish Hall on Thursdays from 6pm-9pm. For more information or to book, go to: www.danceyourselffit.com

The Parish Book Club will meet on Thursday, 2nd October @ 7pm in the Parish Office; all are welcome to attend.
