Faith & Liturgy

On Palm Sunday, palm branches symbolize peace, victory, and triumph. They are waved by the people as they welcome Jesus into Jerusalem, a gesture of honour and reverence, as well as a celebration of Jesus' entry as King. The palms also serve as a reminder of Christ's ultimate victory over death through his resurrection.

Lenten Liturgy: As we enter Holy Week perhaps, we could look back at the three practices that were part of our Lenten journey: PRAYER, FASTING AND ALMSGIVING. Please write down your good deed(s) and place them in the basket at the Lenten Corner at the inside of the church door. These together with all your other good deeds undertaken throughout Lent will be presented in the Offertory Procession at the Easter Masses. What a wonderful gift for our Risen Lord!!!

Celebrate the Sacrament of God's Forgiveness / Love in your Life. Confessions available on Saturday from 5pm – 5.55pm, otherwise just ask the priest.
 A Parish Reconciliation Service will take place this coming Tuesday, April 15th @ 7.30pm in the Memorial Chapel.

Condolences to the family of Ciara McGonagle (nee Fennell) (St Peter's Road), whose Funeral Mass took place in Kimmage Manor on Thursday 10th April. Keep her family in your prayers.

Volunteerism in Kimmage Manor Parish Church.

We are grateful to so many parishioners who volunteer to promote a variety of ministries and jobs that facilitate the building of a Christian Community here in our parish church. Thank you to you all on behalf of everybody.

The experience and expertise of each one are important to what we are trying to achieve, and in our parish church there is room for everybody. Many groups are working away, some of those same groups need to be strengthened, or maybe you might be interested in setting up something that is different, something you may feel passionate about.

After Easter Sunday a list of present Ministries & Committees will be highlighted on the Noticeboard, hopefully you might see something that you would like to be involved in, or maybe there is something new you would like to try! Keep an eye on the Noticeboard after this coming Holy Week.
